You also agree that You will ensure that this information is kept accurate and up-to-date at all times. If You have reason to believe that your account is no longer secure (e.g., in the event of a loss, theft or unauthorized disclosure or use of your account ID or password), then You agree to immediately notify Scholarly Space at privacy@scholarly.space. You may be liable for the losses incurred by Scholarly Space or others due to any unauthorized use of your Website account.

Scholarly Space may permit You to register for the Website through, or otherwise associate your Scholarly Space account with, certain third party social networking or integrated services, such as Google ("Integrated Service"). By registering for the Website using (or otherwise granting access to) an Integrated Service, you agree that Scholarly Space may access your Integrated Service's account information, and you agree to any and all terms and conditions of the Integrated Service regarding your use of the Website via the Integrated Service. If You are a User of the Website and are under the age of 13 ("Child User"), You may not register an account for the Website without consent and approval from your legal parent or guardian. A Child User that begins the registration process for himself or herself without a Parent User may have the registration process restricted until a Parent User approves or assumes responsibility for the Child User account.

Additionally, a Child User may use the Website if registered through certain educational organizations or, in certain cases (as defined below), by Coaches that have entered into a relationship directly with Scholarly Space and through which education organization or Coach the legal parent and/or guardian of such Child User has consented to use of the Website. Further, in certain instances, a Child User may use our Website via one of the third party applications that integrate into or with the Website. A Child User that has registered through such external educational organizations, third party applications, or Coaches will only be permitted to use the Website for so long as Scholarly Space reasonably believes that such access has been consented to by the Child User's parent or guardian.

Parent User

If You are at least 18 years of age and you are the legal parent or guardian of a child that seeks to register as a Child User of the Website, You may register a parent account on the Website ("Parent User"). As a Parent User, you may create, register, manage and approve Child User accounts only for your own child(ren) or child(ren) for whom you are a legal guardian. IF YOU REGISTER, APPROVE THE REGISTRATION OF, OR OTHERWISE ASSUME RESPONSIBILITY FOR ANY CHILD USER, YOU REPRESENT AND WARRANT THAT YOU ARE SUCH CHILD

USER'S LEGAL PARENT OR GUARDIAN AND YOU AGREE TO BE BOUND BY THE TERMS ON BEHALF OF SUCH CHILD USER, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION BEING LIABLE FOR ALL USE OF THE WEBSITE BY THE CHILD USER. You acknowledge that Scholarly Space may choose, but is not obligated, to make any inquiries, either directly or through third parties, that Scholarly Space deems necessary to validate Your registration information, including without limitation engaging third parties to provide verification services. Scholarly Space reserves all rights to take legal actions against anyone who misrepresents personal information or is otherwise untruthful about their identity. NOTWITHSTANDING THE FOREGOING, YOU ACKNOWLEDGE THAT SCHOLARLY SPACE CANNOT GUARANTEE THE ACCURACY OF ANY INFORMATION SUBMITTED BY ANY USER AND SCHOLARLY SPACE IS NOT OBLIGATED TO VERIFY THE IDENTITY OF ANY USER, INCLUDING ANY USER'S CLAIM TO BE A PARENT USER, OR TO VERIFY THAT A PARENT IDENTIFIED BY A CHILD USER OR A COACH DURING REGISTRATION IS SUCH CHILD USER'S ACTUAL PARENT OR GUARDIAN. A Parent User account, along with all associated Child User accounts, may be terminated by Scholarly Space at any time and without warning for any failure to abide by these Terms.

Coach

Scholarly Space may make available certain features and tools that permit certain Users (such as, for example, representatives of school districts, schools, teachers, and other educators) to work with students and other Users through the Website in order to provide such students and other Users with tutorial, educational and other education-related services, and to review and evaluate educational achievement and progress of such students and other Users (each a "Coach"). If you are a Coach, you must use Scholarly Space's Coach registration process when registering accounts on the Website for one or more of your students. IF YOU ARE A COACH AND YOU REGISTER AN ACCOUNT FOR A CHILD USER, YOU REPRESENT AND WARRANT THAT YOU HAVE RECEIVED EXPRESS CONSENT FROM SUCH CHILD USER'S PARENT OR LEGAL GUARDIAN FOR YOU TO REGISTER THE CHILD USER FOR THE WEBSITE AND FOR YOU TO PROVIDE TO SCHOLARLY SPACE THE INFORMATION YOU DISCLOSE IN CONNECTION WITH THE REGISTRATION OF SUCH CHILD USER. WITHOUT LIMITING THE FOREGOING, YOU FURTHER AGREE TO BE BOUND BY THESE TERMS ON BEHALF OF SUCH CHILD USER, INCLUDING WITHOUT LIMITATION BEING LIABLE FOR ALL USE OF THE WEBSITE BY THE CHILD USER, FOR SO LONG AS THE CHILD USER IS NOT OTHERWISE ASSOCIATED WITH OR ASSUMED BY A VALID PARENT USER ACCOUNT. You hereby agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Scholarly Space against any and all claims, losses, liabilities and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) arising out of or related to (a) your violation of any provision, representation or warranty in this Section; (b) the use of the Website by the Child User; (c) your failure to obtain sufficient parental or legal guardian consent; (d) your registration of the Child User, or (e) any other action related to the Child User.

API Terms;Other guidelines

API Terms

Users who utilize any of Scholarly Space's application programming interfaces ("APIs") additionally agree to be bound by Scholarly Space's API Terms of Service.

Other Guidelines

When using the Website, You will be subject to any additional posted guidelines or rules applicable to specific services and features which may be posted from time to time. All such Guidelines are hereby incorporated by reference into the Terms.

Modification of the Terms

Scholarly Space reserves the right, at our discretion, to change, modify, add, or remove portions of the Terms at any time. Please check the Terms and any Guidelines periodically for changes. Your continued use of the Website after the posting of changes constitutes your binding acceptance of such changes. For any material changes to the Terms, Scholarly Space will make reasonable effort to provide notice to you of such amended Terms, such as by an email notification to the address associated with your account or by posting a notice on the Website, and such amended terms will be effective against You on the earlier of (i) your actual notice of such changes and (ii) thirty days after Scholarly Space makes reasonable attempt to provide you such notice. Disputes arising under these Terms will be resolved in accordance with the version of the Terms in place at the time the dispute arose.

Your Information and Content

In the course of using the Service, you and other users may provide or post certain content or information which may be used by Scholarly Space in connection with the Service and which may be visible to certain other users ("User Submissions"). Please visit our Privacy Policy for additional information on the types of information different types of users are able to provide. Additionally, some User Submissions may be deemed an Education Record (as defined below).

You retain all ownership rights you have in any User Submissions. Scholarly Space does not claim any ownership rights in the User Submissions.

In order to allow Scholarly Space to provide the Service, you hereby grant to us a limited, non-exclusive, sublicensable (as necessary to perform the Service), worldwide, royalty-free, and transferable (only to a successor) right and license to (i) use, copy, store, distribute, publicly perform and display, modify, and create derivative works (such as changes we make so that your content works better with our Service) such User Submissions as necessary to provide, improve and make the Service available to you and other users, including through any future media in which the Service may be distributed, (ii) use and disclose metrics and analytics regarding the User Submissions in an aggregate or other non-personally identifiable manner (including, for use in improving our service or in marketing and business development purposes), (iii) use any User Submission (including any Education Record) that has been de-identified for any product development, research or other purpose; and

(iv) use for other purposes permitted by the Scholarly Space Privacy Policy.

Company will only share and use your personally identifiable information in accordance with Scholarly Space's current Privacy Policy at <http://www.scholarly.space/privacy.html>.

The license in (i) above will terminate when you delete any User Submissions with intellectual property rights (like photos or videos) ("IP content"), you or your Institution (as defined below) deletes an Education Record, you delete any personal information, or you delete your account, unless your content has been shared with others, and they have not deleted it. When you delete IP content, Education Records, or personal information, it is deleted in a manner similar to emptying the recycle or trash bin on a computer. However, you understand that any removed User Submission may persist in backup copies for a reasonable period of time (but will not be available to others). You are responsible for making sure that you have all rights in the User Submissions, including the rights necessary for you to grant us the foregoing licenses to the User Submissions.

All information posted or transmitted through the Service is the responsibility of the person that posted it, and we will not be liable for any errors or omissions in any content. Scholarly Space cannot guarantee the identity of any other users with whom you may interact in the course of using the Service, or the authenticity of any data which users may provide about themselves. You acknowledge that all content accessed by you using the Service is at your own risk and you will be solely responsible for any damage or loss to any party resulting therefrom. We do not guarantee that we will publish any of your User Submissions, and reserve the right to remove User Submissions from the Service at any time for any reason, such as if we receive a notice reports a User Submission infringes someone's intellectual property rights.

Additional Terms by User Type

if you are a student accessing the Service at the invitation of a teacher or other school official, the following terms apply to you.

- i. Only students who have been invited, or given access to the Service, by their teacher, school, or district may use the Service. You may not access or use the Service unless you are invited or given access to the Service by a teacher, school, or district who is authorized to give you access to the Service.
- ii. We request minimal personal information to be provided from students to sign up for an account on the Service: username, password, and age or date of birth. If you are under 13 years of age, we also collect your parent's email address so that we can provide notice or obtain consent for you to use the Service. If you are a student, please do not provide any personal information about yourself to us, other than what we request from you when you sign up for the Service or as directed by your teacher, school or district.
- iii. The Children's Online Privacy Protection Act ("COPPA") prohibits online service providers from knowingly collecting personally identifiable information from children under 13 years of age without verifiable parental consent or notice as applicable ("Consent"). Consent may be obtained either by 1) Scholarly Space if the student is setting up a student account; or 2) a student's school if utilizing certain features of the Service without setting up an account. Children under the age of 13 are prohibited from using certain features of the Service without Consent. For that reason, the signup flow for the Service requests the age of each new student user. By registering, you promise that you provided your real age during your signup, and you are either (a) over the age of 13 or (b) you gave us your parent or legal guardian's actual and current email address, and that any response sent to Company in response comes from your parent or legal guardian.

Teachers and school leaders

If you are a teacher, school leader, aide, or other similar personnel ("School Personnel") accessing the Service on behalf of a school, school district, or other similar educational institution (the "Institution"), the following terms apply to you:

- i. You agree that you are acting on behalf of (or have permission from) your Institution to enter into this Agreement and to use the Service as part of your curriculum.
- You further understand and acknowledge that COPPA prohibits online service providers from knowingly collecting personally identifiable information from children under 13 years of age without Consent and you understand that we will not let children under the age of 13 use certain features of the Service unless:
 - Scholarly Space obtains Consent from the child's parent or legal guardian if the student is creating an account on Scholarly Space; or
 - You obtain Consent in the situations where the child is not creating an account, but you as School Personnel allow the child to access certain features of Scholarly Space which may result in the collection of personal information from the child ("School Consent"). Scholarly Space will not provide full access or use of the Service to children under the age of 13 that you invite or allow access to the Service if we are unable to obtain parental consent or learn that School Personnel or the Institution has not obtained School Consent.

- School Consent. You acknowledge and agree that when School Consent must be utilized to allow children under 13 to use the Service, you and/or the Institution will be solely responsible (and hereby agree that Scholarly Space is not responsible) for compliance with COPPA. This includes without limitation, limiting access to the Service to those student users from whom School Personnel has received valid Consent forms and complying with all parental requests regarding the collection, use and disclosure of such parent's child's information. School Personnel or the Institution are responsible for disseminating parental consent forms to the parents of potential student users, for confirming receipt of valid consent forms for each child before granting the student access to the Service, and for retaining such consent forms on file. If a parent user does not consent or rescinds such School Consent, School Personnel or the Institution shall immediately notify Scholarly Space to discontinue that student's access to the Service and ensure that such student's information is no longer accessible through the Services. For more information on School Consent please see our FAQ.
- Only School Personnel who are current employees of the Institution may use the Service on the Institution's behalf. Upon termination of a teacher or other staff member's employment with the Institution, such individual must return and cease using all login details and student access he or she has in his or her possession. If at any time you learn a user of the Service claims to be affiliated with your Institution who is not, in fact, affiliated with your Institution, you will notify Company immediately.

Parents If you are a parent of a student that has been invited to create an account on the Service or is given access to the Service by

School Personnel, then the following terms apply to you:

- If your child is under the age of 13, Consent must be given in order for a student to use certain features of a Scholarly Space student account. This Consent may be obtained either from 1) Scholarly Space if the student is setting up a student account; or 2) a student's School Personnel if utilizing certain features of the Service without setting up an account. If you are the parent or legal guardian of a child who has created an account with us and you did not receive an email seeking your Consent, you can email us at privacy@scholarly.space to have that child's account deleted. Please note, that if you as a parent provide an email to School Personnel when the school is obtaining School Consent, we may send an email asking you to verify your child's account, but you will not receive any other emails unless you have opted in to email marketing or have separately created an account on our Service. Information collected from students (including personal information and information collected automatically) is never used or disclosed for third-party advertising or any kind of first- or third-party behaviorally-targeted advertising, and personal information is never sold or rented to anyone, including marketers or advertisers. See our Privacy Policy for more details.
- You further agree that we may send you messages, alerts, and other communications through the Service, including via email, web alert, text messages, push notifications and other similar means, in accordance with the preferences you set through the Service, and you agree to accept such messages, and pay any applicable network access, data usage, or similar fees.

FERPA* Certain information that may be provided to Scholarly Space by School Personnel that is directly related to a student and maintained by an Institution, may be considered an education record ("Education Record") under the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act ("FERPA"). Additionally, certain information, provided to Company by School Personnel about a student, such as student name and grade level, may be considered directory information under FERPA ("Directory Information") and thus not an Education Record. A school may not generally disclose personally identifiable information from an eligible student's education records to a third party without written consent of the parent and/or eligible student or without meeting one of the exemptions set forth in FERPA ("FERPA Exemption(s)"), including the exemption for Directory Information ("Directory Information Exemption") or disclosure to school officials with a legitimate educational interest ("School Official Exemption"). As School Personnel or an Institution providing Directory Information or any Education Record to Scholarly Space, you represent, warrant and covenant to Scholarly Space, as applicable, that your Institution has:

- complied with the Directory Information Exemption, including, without limitation, informing parents and eligible students what information the Institution deems to be directory information and allowing parents and eligible students a reasonable amount of time to request that schools not disclose directory information about them; and/or
- complied with the School Official Exemption, including, without limitation, informing parents in their annual notification of FERPA rights that the Institution defines "school official" to include service providers and defines "legitimate educational interest" to include services such as the type provided by Scholarly Space; or
- obtained all necessary parental or eligible student written consent to share the Directory Information and Educational Records with Company, in each case, solely to enable Company's operation of the Service.

Scholarly Space will never share Education Records with third parties except (i) as directed by a Scholarly Space user (i.e., teacher sharing with another teacher or parent); or (ii) to our service providers that are necessary for us to provide the Service, as stated in our Privacy Policy. A list of our current essential service providers is located here. Education Records are never used or disclosed for third party advertising or any kind of first- or third-party behaviorally-targeted advertising to students or parents. Additionally, information collected directly from a student using Scholarly Space is never used or disclosed for third party advertising, or any kind of first- or third-party behaviorally-targeted advertising to the student, and personal information collected from a student is never sold or rented to anyone. This section shall not be construed (i) to prohibit Scholarly Space from marketing or advertising directly to parents so long as the marketing or advertising did not result from the use of Educational Records to provide behaviorally targeted advertising or (ii) to limit the ability of Scholarly Space to use student information or Educational Records for adaptive learning or customized student learning purposes.

Scholarly Space may use Education Records that have been de-identified for product development, research or other purposes ("De-Identified Data"). De-Identified Data will have all direct and indirect personal identifiers removed, this includes, but is not limited to, name, date of birth, demographic information, location information and school identity. Scholarly Space agrees not to attempt to re-identify the De-Identified Data and not to transfer the De-Identified Data to a third party unless that party agrees not to attempt re-identification.

These terms do not grant you the right to use any Scholarly Space Marks. You must not remove, obscure, or alter any copyright or other legal notices displayed in or along with our Services.

Company may, now or in the future, incorporate certain functions that allow you to interact with the Service through your accounts on certain supported third party services, such as social networks or network storage sites ("Linked Accounts"), such as with "Like" and "Share" buttons, or similar features. If you choose to use such features, you grant Company permission to access and use your Linked Account for the purpose of processing your requests. Your use of Linked Accounts is subject to the applicable third party terms.

Scholarly Space may also in its sole discretion and at any time discontinue providing access to the Website, or any part thereof, with or without notice. You agree that any termination of your access to the Website or any account You may have, or portion thereof, may be affected without prior notice, and You agree that Scholarly Space will not be liable to You or any third party for any such termination.
